

ADOPT-A-SEAT!

In Charleston Stage's New West Ashley Theatre Center's 130-Seat Performance Space

You Are Invited to Adopt a Theatre Seat Inside Charleston's Newest Performing Arts Venue!

This exciting new theatre education facility located at Ashley Landing includes classrooms, dance and rehearsal studios, a recording studio, and a 130-seat performance space. The performance space is known as "The Pearl", or the Pearlstine Theatre in recognition of a very generous $250,000 lead gift from the Pearlstine Family. Additional funds are still needed to underwrite other equipment and upfit costs for this exciting new theatre education and performance facility.

We invite you to adopt-a-seat and support this imaginative new performance venue and education space.

THEATRE CENTER SEAT DONATION LEVELS

Front Row Seat:
$10,000

Tier One Seat:
$5,000

Tier Two Seat:
$1,000

Tier Three Seat:
$500

Lobby Bench:
$200

Plaques acknowledging your gift will be placed on your donated seat. Your seat contribution is fully tax-deductible.

YOUR GIFT ALSO SUPPORTS

This new performance arts facility, not only serves the general public but serves the more than 22,000 students involved in Charleston Stage's extensive education programs. Your seat donation will also support:

Performances For School Groups
Serving over 19,000 students annually

Acting Classes
Serving 350+ students annually

SummerStage Musical Theatre Camps
Serving 150+ students annually

TheatreWings High School Apprenticeships
Serving 35 high school students annually

Outreach Acting Workshops
Serving more than 40 schools annually

For More Information Contact Sara Berkowitz, Director of Development, at (843) 647-7363 or sberkowitz@charlestonstage.com. To Adopt a Seat Online, Visit CharlestonStage.com/Adopt-a-Seat.